

EDUCATOR PHILOSOPHY WORKSHEET

Use the graphic organizer below as a blueprint for organizing your professional experiences into a well-crafted, strategically organized, and content-rich educator philosophy. This organizational tool can also serve as a guide for focused interview practice so that you can confidently share your best professional story.

YOUR ASPIRATIONS/GOALS/OBJECTIVES AS A TEACHER:

---

---

---

---

---

---

CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT

(routines, rituals, relationships, safety, community, student engagement, etc.)

A large, empty rectangular box with a blue border, intended for writing about classroom management.

COLLABORATION

(relationships, accepting/giving feedback, accountability, reciprocity, co-teaching, etc.)

A large, empty rectangular box with a blue border, intended for writing about collaboration.

INSTRUCTION

(student engagement, planning, accommodations, modifications, delivery methods, technology, etc..)

A large, empty rectangular box with a blue border, intended for writing about instruction.

ASSESSMENT

(checking for understanding, adjustments, self-discovery, formative, summative, etc.)

A large, empty rectangular box with a blue border, intended for writing about assessment.